NEW YORK CITY
MAY 9 – 10, 2024

"An organized group of professional people with particular aims, duties, and privileges"

I invite you as a required attendee for a meeting in New York City for May 9 & 10. The meeting will ensure we understand and can achieve the performance we need. Over 2-days in the Big Apple, we will review execution of programs, projects and major deliverables – time, costs, specifications, and risks – and their interdependencies for the next 12-18 months, in ways not possible during our normal day-to-day activities. The agenda will focus on what matters most, ensuring we work together productively, aligned to our main ideas and purpose, on a worldwide basis. We will reaffirm context, hone our tools and frameworks, and gain better understanding of one other's contributions and priorities.

Getting everyone to New York is neither convenient nor cheap. The meeting will be hard work, requiring focus, so please don't anticipate or plan parallel activities outside the agenda. We will start on Thursday, May 9 at 9:00am sharp and end on Friday, May 10 at 4:00pm. We also request your attendance at a dinner on the evening of Thursday, May 9. A comprehensive meeting agenda will be provided shortly.

For now, please register and get the travel and logistics underway as follows:

Venue:

The Dominick Hotel
